

OUTCAST

Our new 2011 Anderson Valley Pinot Noir is a beautiful wine crafted by celebrated winemaker Ryan Hodgins of Breggo / Cliff Lede heritage!

Primary fruit components were sourced from the famed Savoy Vineyard which produces some of the most beautiful wines of the Anderson Valley. On the nose, candied kumquats and shaved cinnamon bark coupled with ripe strawberry pie. The entry is smooth, silky and round, and dances on the palate with life.

Feminine in style, the wine boasts of 65% new French Oak that compliments and adds layers of baking spice and earth. The finish is creamy and elegant which makes for a truly pleasurable and easy-drinking beauty.

Enjoy this wine paired with lighter fare (Roasted Chicken, Seared Salmon, or Mushroom Risotto) and enjoy responsibly with friends and family one glass at a time!
