Opening with rich aromas of vanilla and lemon meringue, this barrel-fermented Sauvignon Blanc is delightfully crisp and light with a clear sense of lemony-lime and tropical fruit goodness. It finishes bright in melon and another hit of vanilla.

Wasted Grape is a boutique wine label based in the Suisun Valley in Northern California. We are grateful for all of the wonderful reviews we have received since 2011 when we released our first wine. Our approach to winemaking is a blend of old world ideals and innovative techniques. We sincerely hope that you will enjoy our fresh take on some of your favorite wines with your friends and family as much as we do.
