

Wine Tasting - $15

Arabella Chenin Blanc

2016 Robertson, South Africa

Yellow, lime green color. Guava with hints of fresh straw on the nose. Rich, racy on full on the middle palate with a great finish! $15.99/btl

Toblar Pinot Grigio

2015 Friuli Isonzo DOC, Italy

A beautiful yellow color with copper reflections, this wine is intense and complex, with floral notes of wild roses and acacia. It is elegant and full with a balanced acidity. This is a great pre-dinner (or beach) drink but also pairs well with light appetizers. $19.99/btl

Alchemy Grand Cuvee

2014 Cachapoal Valley, Chile (55% Cabernet Sauvignon, 30% Carmenere, 10% Syrah, 5% Malbec)

This blend is made up of the best grapes from each plot. The beauty of the Alchemy wines is they do everything by hand in the process of harvesting and winemaking. After 24 months in French Oak barrels you are left with a wine that is full of soft round tannins with touches of vanilla and berries dancing over your tongue. $24.99/btl

Tolosa Proprietary Red

2014 Paso Robles, California (64% Cabernet Sauvignon, 20% Petite Verdot, 9% Syrah, 5% Petit Sirah, 2% Grenache)

Grapes were sourced from selected sites in Paso Robles and fermented in stainless steel and aged for 18 months in small French oak barrels. Aromas of sagebrush, cigar and sandal wood with notes of menthol and clove.

Enticing flavors of red currant, rhubarb, strawberry jam, black plum and fig. Elegant and approachable.

$21.99/btl

Pier Avenue Cabernet Sauvignon

2015 Red Mountain, Washington

The palate on this heady 100% Cabernet is packed to the brim with floral aromas and flavors of blackberry, blueberry, black cherry and plum fruit that intermixes with hints of dark chocolate and a fresh shot of espresso. Incredibly pure and complex, this richly textured wine is totally seamless in all of its parts, allowing for its silky texture to shine through on the palate, with no hard edges with an amazingly long and persistent finish.

Although this wine is extremely age-worthy. The polished texture and well managed tannin will allow this wine to provide immediate pleasure in its youth. $34.99/btl
