Muriel Blanco New Arrival!

2016 Elciego, Rioja, Spain (85% Viura, 10% Verdejo, 5% Sauvignon Blanc)

Viura is the predominant white wine of Rioja and it is known for its longevity. This youthful bottle is intense and fresh, with floral and fruity notes of white pear, apple and citrus. The palate is juicy with a pleasing long finish. Pair with any type of shellfish. Great with tapas or paella. $13.99/btl

Loscano "The Winemaker" Rose New Arrival!

2017 Mendoza, Argentina (97% Malbec, 3% Torrontes)

The fruit for this superb wine is cultivated in high altitude vineyards which have perfect growing conditions, producing some of the most distinctive wines in Argentina. This rose was bottled fresh without barrel aging and offers very flavorful notes of cherries and strawberries. Cheers! $14.99/btl

San Felo Morellino Di Scansano

2014 Morellino Di Scansano,, Tuscany, Italy (85% Sangiovese, 15% Cabernet Sauvignon and Merlot)

Morellino di Scansano DOCG wine is extremely linked to the territory. It is produced mainly with Sangiovese grapes coming from vineyards located between the municipality of Grosseto and Magliano in Tuscany. This wine shows a ruby red color, an intense and elegant aroma with hints of red berry fruit and a soft, full and round flavor. $19.99/btl

Arabella Pinotage

2013 Western Cape, South Africa

I bet the first question in your mind when you read the word Pinotage was "What the hell is a Pinotage?!" Well Pinotage is a grape variety that was created in South Africa in 1925 by Abraham Izak Perold, the first Professor of Viticulture at Stellenbosch University. It is a cross between Pinot Noir and Cinsault and is now known as South Africa's signature red grape. This one possesses inviting aromas of mocha and chocolate. On the palate lovely fruity notes of bananas and blueberries dance on the front end while a nice spicy, smoky undertone rounds out the back end of the wine. A great value at only $14.99/btl

To Whom Red Blend New Arrival!

2015 North Coast, California

This blend is an elegant expression of a North Coast red. The harmony of dark cherry, vanilla, and raspberry that play off of licorice and chocolate make every sip a delight. This is the kind of wine that we like to settle into and really savor. The flavors are only enhanced by food pairings. To Whom is fantastic with anything incorporating sweet peppers, caramelized onions, and mushrooms. $18.99/bottle
